DISCUSSION

The San Luis Obispo County Mozart Festival was founded over 33 years ago with a goal to provide performances of high artistic quality to Central Coast communities. This goal is achieved each year with the Mozart Festival presenting nationally recognized artists performing alongside the finest local musicians in picturesque settings throughout the County. Since 1971, the Festival has seen a steady growth in the number of concerts presented from a three-concert weekend to two weeks of twenty paid concerts, fourteen free outreach concerts, lectures and programs directed to children. The Mozart Festival draws hundreds of tourists each year, thereby, stimulating the local economy by attracting visitor dollars. Sponsorship of the Mozart Festival also helps to defray the cost of holding educational and outreach programs.

The Festival is also a great source of educational and outreach programs. The outreach programs have traditionally included 14 fringe outreach concerts throughout each Supervisor's district in the County. These concerts are free and are opened to the public.

The $9,000 in County funds will be used to sponsor Mozart Fringe Concerts in all Supervisory Districts between July 14th and July 23rd, 2006.
